

Much advertising these days is like the great gas clouds which the armies of Europe are hurling at each other.

It envelopes you in a thick fog of superlatives and exaggerations in which you can only rub your eyes and gasp for breath.

Here, by way of contrast, is our advertising code: to be straightforward—to be truthful—to be brief.

When you have such merchandise as Kirschbaum Clothes at $15, $20 and $25, you can safely leave a lot to be said by the goods themselves.

CONFLICT IN MEETINGS CAUSE
CHANGE MADE TO MT. PLEASANT FOR FRIDAY.

His. Alf A. Taylor, republican elector at large for the state, former congressman, and finished orator, will not speak in Columbia on Friday night. On account of the conflict with the "Suffragettes' Convention" to be held by the women of the city on that night, the speaking has been deferred.

clared off by the republican committee.

Mr. Taylor will go to Mt. Pleasant Friday night and will address the voters in the interest of the republican party on state and national issues. Although Mr. Taylor cannot speak in Columbia at the announced time, R. S. Hopkins, chairman of the republican county committee, stated that arrangements would probably be made to get the distinguished statesman to Columbia at some time in the near future.

There is one remedy that for many years has given relief from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Mrs. Chas. Rietz, Allen Mills, Pa., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for the past eleven years and I would not be without it."
